

H. A. Darnenberg

is a past director of the Kiwanis Club, a trustee of Lodge No. 849, B. P. O. Elks. He married in November, 1895, Miss Minnie Lawton, of Omaha, Nebraska. They have one daughter, Elizabeth Ralston, of Germantown, Pennsylvania.

THOMAS A. DANNENBERG, M. D., who is established in the successful practice of his profession at Heber, judicial center of Wasatch County, is not only one of the able and representative physicians and surgeons of this county but is also known and valued as a liberal and progressive citizen.

Doctor Dannenberg is able to revert to the old Lone Star State as the place of his nativity, for his birth occurred at Rhome, Texas, on the 8th of August, 1880. He is a son of Charles A. and Amanda (Bartow) Dannenberg, and he was about five years of age at the time of the family removal to California, where his father continued in the work of his sturdy trade, that of blacksmith. Doctor Dannenberg received the advantages of the California public schools, and after completing his studies in the high school he was a student in the College of Physicians and Surgeons at San Francisco. In preparation for the exacting profession of his choice he completed a thorough course and received from that institution in 1904 his degree of Doctor of Medicine. He further fortified himself through the valuable clinical experience gained in his year of service as an interne in the Morton Sanitarium at San Francisco, and in 1905 he came to Utah and engaged in private general practice at Kamas. His professional and communal progressiveness was shown in his establishing a well ordered private hospital at Kamas, which is in Summit County, and this hospital he continued to conduct in connection with his general communal practice from 1915 until 1926, in which latter year he broadened his field of professional service by establishing residence at Heber, where he has since continued in successful general practice and been associated with his brother in the conducting of a hospital that is maintained at high standard in equipment and service. The Doctor has membership in the American Medical Association, the Utah State Medical Society and the Utah County Medical Society. He was elected president of the Heber Chamber of Commerce in 1929. His basic Masonic affiliation is with the lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons at Park City, Summit County, where he has membership also in the Commandery of Knights Templar, he being also identified with bodies of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Masonry and a Noble of El Kalah Temple of the Mystic Shrine, in Salt Lake City.

November 15, 1905, recorded the marriage of Doctor Dannenberg to Miss Maud Reynolds, daughter of George H. and Melvina Reynolds, of Woodland, Summit County, Utah, and the three children of this union are Alma M., Ralph and Therma.

Doctor Dannenberg has continued a close student along professional lines and has availed himself of the best in the standard and periodical literature of medicine and surgery, besides which he did virtual post-graduate work in 1921-22 by serving as interne in the Wesley Memorial Hospital in the City of Chicago. During 1931-1932 he visited Vienna, where he did post-graduate work for five months, doing special work in surgery.

JOHN U. BUCHI, secretary and manager of the Provo Foundry & Machine Company, is a native of Utah, and represents some of those sturdy elements of citizenship contributed to the Utah pioneer history by the inhabitants of Switzerland. His parents, John U. and Anna Barbara (Boshard) Buchi, came from Switzerland and settled in the Provo district in 1862. John U. Buchi, Sr., died soon after coming to Utah.

Mr. John U. Buchi was born at Provo April 20, 1876, attended public schools and the Brigham Young University at Provo, and from boyhood was working with the tools of a carpenter. While working he kept up his studies at night, learning bookkeeping and later studied law and engineering. In 1898, when he was twenty-two years of age, he enlisted in the United States Army, joining Battery B of the Utah Volunteer Artillery. He saw fourteen months of service in 1898 and 1899 in the Philippines, and was discharged in August, 1899, with the rank of first sergeant.

Mr. Buchi in 1900 was elected city recorder of Provo and in 1904 became chief deputy sheriff of Utah County. When he left that office, in 1908, he took up engineering and railroad construction work in California for the Western Pacific Railway. Returning home, he has been connected with the Provo Foundry & Machine Company since 1907. At first he was bookkeeper, later draftsman, and then engineer, and is now secretary and manager of this important local industry. Mr. Buchi is also secretary of the Humboldt Mining Company and of the Superior Motor Company of Provo. He is president of the local organization of the American Society of Engineers.

He married in September, 1909, Miss Jennie Bee Jones, of Provo. She passed away January 5, 1930. Mr. Buchi is affiliated with Provo Lodge No. 849, B. P. O. Elks, is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Timpanogos Golf Association. His hobbies are fishing, hunting and boating.

HON. ALBERT H. CHRISTENSON, former judge of the district bench, is a distinguished lawyer at Provo, in which city he has his law offices at 32 Center Street.

Judge Christenson is a native son of Utah, born at Gunnison, December 13, 1872. His parents, Lars M. and Elsie K. Christenson, settled in Sanpete County, Utah, in 1866. His father was a farmer and was called out for military duty during the Black Hawk Indian war.

Judge Christenson acquired a public school education in Gunnison, attended the Brigham Young University at Provo, graduating in 1896, and studied law in the University of Michigan. He received his LL. B. degree in 1899 and has had thirty years of successful experience in the work of his profession and in offices to which the qualifications of a lawyer are essential. He began practice at Manti in Sanpete County, in 1899 was appointed deputy county attorney and served as county attorney from 1901 to 1904.
